President J. W. Jones has announced that Miss Mattie M. Dykes, a member of the English faculty for 35 years before her retirement in 1957, will be the commencement speaker at the graduation activities to be held Friday evening, August 7, in the new health and physical education building.

Miss Dykes is a member of the Modern Language Association, the American Association of University Professors, the American Association of University Women, National Federation of Press Women, and other organizations.

Washington Band Plays Composition By Mr. Earle Moss

"South American Suite" by Earle Moss, band director at the College, is being performed by the ninety-piece symphonic band of the University of Washington in its summer concert series. This band, under the direction of William D. Cole, is one of the finest in the northwest.

Mr. Moss' composition was heard on the spring band program presented by the College concert band. The suite paints three pictures of Latin ladies: "Enchantress," "Inca Priestess," and "Fandango." It runs the gamut from sweetness to savagery.

Prominent in "South American Suite" are many complicated Latin rhythms played on a variety of percussion instruments.

The University of Wichita Symphonic Band, directed by James Kerr, has also performed the composition by Mr. Moss.

Breakfast Will Be First of Activities For Senior Class

Senior class activities at the College are scheduled to begin with the senior breakfast at 8 a.m. Friday, August 7, in the Union.

Mr. Dreher will play "Concerto," for trumpet in B-sharp, by Haydn; "Preludio, Aria E Scherzo" by Porrino; "Choral and Variations" by Delmas; and "Andante and Allergo" by Ropartz.

Mr. Dreher is to be accompanied by Mrs. Marjorie Guinn who is also a music major at the College.

Mrs. Guinn will complete the program by singing a group of "Italian Art Songs," "Aria-Caralleria Rusticana," and a group of "English Songs."

Improvements to Be Completed By Beginning of Fall Semester

By Larson and Beemer

Much work has been done on the campus building program this summer, and as a result, many changes have been made for the coming year.

President J. W. Jones states that the additions to the Union building will be completed and ready for use by fall and that the new Health and Physical Education building will be usable for the men students. The present gymnasium will be usable for the women.

Two Studios to Be on Third

Two music studios will be on the third floor in rooms 315 and 312. Dr. John Smay and Donald Sanford will occupy these studios. Air-conditioning has been installed in the music studios on fourth floor, and some remodeling has been done.

The third floor will be occupied by the home economics department on the east end and the chemistry department on the west end. Mathematics and science will be located between the two departments.

New Lighting to Be Installed

Biology will occupy the west end of the second floor. New lighting fixtures will be installed on each desk, similar to those found in the new biology laboratories at Indiana University.

Dr. Densil Cooper's office will be located at the northeast end of the second floor. Mr. Everett Brown's office will be in rooms 205 and 206. Room 207 will serve as a physical science and general physics lecture room.

Agriculture to Be on First

The agriculture department will be located on the west end of the first floor. Rooms 124 and 125 will be used as laboratory and office, respectively, for the agriculture department. Room 126 will serve as the agricultural museum.

The former girls' physical education gymnasium has been converted into the new area for the speech department. (Continued on Page Two)

Dormitory Women Present 'Dragnet' At Party Thursday

"Dragnet," with Vernie Ford acting as mistress of ceremonies, was presented at the dorm party in Residence Hall, Thursday evening, July 23.

Some of the charges were as follows: sitting on dorm steps after hours, making long distance telephone calls from third floor to first, crossing from dorm to dorm after hours, having a pet monkey in the dorm, overloading an electrical current, and leaving the elevator door open.

Marilyn Frizzell appeared in each act as the Bum.

The graduating seniors, Myrtle Slover, Ethel Witt, Emma Yurkovich and Delores White, were awarded silver spoons by Mrs. Helen Larson. Myrtle Slover was presented a corsage by Mrs. Elizabeth Luer, director of women's housing, in honor of her graduation by taking summer school and correspondence courses only. A picture was taken of the presentation.

Refreshments were prepared and served by first floor women. Second floor women were in charge of the entertainment.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

"YES, OF COURSE I'M HOT, BUT—"

World Seeks High Standards

"A trustee is held to something stricter than the morals of the market place. Not honesty alone, but the punctilio of an honor the most sensitive, is then the standard of behavior," wrote Benjamin Cardozo, an American lawyer.

College graduates are trustees in relation to the world around them. They are usually expected to observe even the least punctilio of their profession. They are given larger responsibilities than the average citizens are given.

People who have never attended college seem to think that those who have are intellectual superhumans.

Graduates have a definite problem, for their standards of behavior are accepted in the same way. Maybe this is the way it should be. It is conceivable that standards are, upon one's graduation from a highly rated college, as well developed as they ever will be.

Why all the fuss? Just this: The cause is worsened when just one member of any sphere of the College does not live up to the standards befitting him while still in school.

It has been said that there is more dishonesty involved in the preparation for the teaching profession than in any other. Yet, Plutarch maintained that the very spring and root of honesty and virtue lie in the felicity of lighting on good education.

Dr. Harry Gailey Adds Publication To College Studies

By Coleen Wilmes

"British Contributions to Reform in the Congo Free State, 1895-1913," is the subject for the latest "Northwest Missouri State College Studies," published May 1, 1959. Dr. Harry A. Gailey, Jr., associate professor of social science, is the author of this publication.

Dr. Gailey has a specific interest in Africa, and he is a member of the African Studies Association. This is the third in a series which has been written by Dr. Gailey.

Deals With Regulation

Basically it deals with British attempts, both private and governmental, to regulate the government of the Belgian Congo. Sometimes called Congo Free State, the Belgian Congo government had been established at Berlin in 1884.

The Congo Free State was an international state designed to promote free trade and religion among the peoples of the Congo. Its head was Leopold, King of Belgium.

Extreme coercive practices were used to force the natives to gather high quotas of rubber. Several English subjects were executed without being permitted to appeal their cases.

Force Reform on Free State
The English first, through missionary channels and later through government officials, confirmed these offenses. Through unrelenting pressure from 1895 until 1913, they forced reform upon the reluctant government of the Free State.

Through the "Studies," the College has made many contributions to education. Most of the faculty who have contributed to the publications have contributed to a number of nationally known journals in their field.

Committee members for the "Studies" include Dr. Irene M. Mueller—chairman, Dr. Harry G. Dildine, Dr. Frank W. Grube, and Dr. John S. Taylor.

Copies of this latest publication, as well as the others, may be purchased for fifty cents. Address all communications to Dr. J. W. Jones, president of the College.

Mattie M. Dykes Will Be Speaker

Miss Dykes has made two trips to Europe, one being made to study in London and Cambridge, England, for a one-year duration. She has traveled widely throughout the United States.

Her hobbies are reading, writing for publication, and weaving. She is now working with the Veterans Administration of Kansas City as an instructor on a weaving project with a disabled veteran, Mr. Robert Bixler, Maryville.

Construction Work Nears Completion

Loren Stoneman Conducts Survey

Mr. Loren Stoneman, a post-graduate from St. Charles, Iowa, has conducted a survey to find the actual value of the "high school senior trip." This survey is a project for his class in extra-curricular activities in the secondary school.

Mr. Stoneman used the western part of Kansas because this is a rural area and most rural schools have senior trips. He found that virtually all of the schools had such a trip and that 95 per cent of the seniors take advantage of them.

The seniors traveled from 300 to 3500 miles on these trips and were gone from one to eight days. Most senior classes used a school bus or private cars for transportation, but some traveled by bus or train. Money was obtained from class plays, concessions, work projects, and donations.

School tradition was the reason most often given for taking the trip. Most classes gave no reports; so it was of no value to underclassmen. The superintendents generally felt that the senior trip has little educational value and many schools are discontinuing it.

Bearcats to Open Paul Turner Is At Helm in Football Football Season At Home This Year

Throughout this nation, there are uniform tracts of ground, which measure 100 yards by 53½ yards. During most of the year, these areas are barren, but in September an invisible force beckons to those who seek athletic immortality, and football season has arrived.

Maryville's Bearcats will open their football season at home this fall. Bemidji State, Bemidji, Minnesota, will grease the Bearcat gridiron on the night of September 19. The opponents are expected to employ the T-formation which has been highly successful for them in recent seasons.

August 28 Is the Date

Preparation for the opener is scheduled to begin on August 28. Equipment will be checked out on the 27th.

Sixteen lettermen will form the nucleus of the '59-'60 Bearcat squad. They are Phillip Maher, Lonnie Timmerman, Jack Taylor, Jim Clayton, George Weed, Grant Hilburn, Harold Wilkinson, Al Brooks, Mickey Nardin, Doyle Thomas, Vernon Bryant, Pete Carrizales, Al Kyle, Joe Monochino, Jack Boyd, and Fred Fuhr.

Injuries will prohibit the return of lettermen Larry Belluchie and Glen Hartley. Duane Abbot, Raymond Sickler, and Corwin Ingram will also pass up the football season.

Plans to Use Split-T

Head football coach Paul Turner, former football-basketball letterman at Kansas University, plans to base the Bearcat offense around the split-T. Variations off the T will be added as the season progresses.

Turner plans to hold the squad to 66 after the season opens. The head mentor believes that the quarterback situation is beginning to shape up. Currently, Maurice Fulton, a six foot, 185 pounder from Leon, Iowa; Ken Sanders, a six foot 180 pound prospect from Jefferson, Iowa, and Del Dubois, five-nine and 170 pounds, head the list.

Invitations Have Been Offered
Several invitations have been offered to football possibilities through Turner. Affirmation of the acceptance of the invitations will be determined during the month of August for the majority of the players.

New faces on campus this summer, may possibly see action this fall. Ron Ives and Ken Adams, an end and a tackle, respectively, both tip the scales at 195. Ives transfers from Buena Vista and Adams from Dubuque.

Templeton to Get Action

Dorsey Templeton, a 205 pound end from Highland Junior College, is also slated for some action.

Assisting Turner in the HEAD FOOTBALL COACH, Paul Turner, is mapping out his practice sessions which will begin on August 28. Bemidji State, Bemidji, Minnesota, will be the first opponent, and the foremost goal of the early practice sessions. The Bearcats will host Bemidji on September 19.

coaching duties will be Dr. H. D. Peterson, backfield; Marion Moss, line; and Bob Gregory, line. Gregory, formerly a member of the Bearcat coaching staff, has returned to the staff for further work with the Bearcats.

Captain of the Bearcats will be determined before the opener. Turner hopes to instill within the players the fact that morale comes from self-discipline. A good captain and leader will exemplify the ability to permeate his team mates with the attitude of a true sportsman.

Mr. Ryland Milner Gives Assignments

Ryland Milner, athletic director, announced July 15 the coaching assignments for the 1959-60 sports year. Milner impressed on the staff that "working together" will be the formula for building strong Bearcat athletic teams.

One new member has been added to the staff. He is Robert Gregory, former basketball coach at the College. Gregory will be returning to his alma mater as a member of the coaching staff and as an instructor in the health and physical education department.

Hopes for Good Season

Director Milner has high hopes for a successful football season under Paul Turner, head grid coach. Turner will be assisted by Dr. H. D. Peterson as backfield coach, and Marion Moss and Robert Gregory as line coaches.

The football season will open here September 19 in a night game with the Bearcats meeting the Bemidji, Minnesota, State College team. Turner's football camp will open August 28 to begin preparation for the fall schedule.

Makes Other Assignments

Other coaching assignments made at the staff meeting, which College President J. W. Jones attended, were these: Milner, fall cross country; Moss, head basketball coach, Turner, assistant; Dr. Peterson, wrestling; Turner and Milner, track; and Milner and Gregory, golf.

Milner emphasized that this well balanced athletic program and coaching staff working together will produce a good year. He also pointed out that with the new code for athletic scholarships and increased emphasis in the recruitment of good athletes, the spirit of Bearcat hopes for the 1959-60 season is certainly one of optimism.

Members of the coaching staff feel that the athletic scholarships will produce a competitive brand of sports.
